Television stars will toast their triumphs at the 67th Emmy Awards with a Ferrari...Ferrari bubbly that is! Ferrari, Italy's most awarded sparkling producer, is proud to sponsor the Emmy festivities. Ferrari Brut, a prestige label, will kick off the celebration when it's served to Emmy guests departing the awards ceremony and entering the "ultimate after-parties" – the Creative Arts Emmys Ball on September 12 and the 67th Emmy Awards Governors Ball on September 20.

Just named "Sparkling Producer of 2015" in the Champagne and Sparkling Wine World Championships, Ferrari Trentodoc has been produced in the same "méthode traditionnelle" as Champagne since 1902. No stranger to awards or the red carpet, Ferrari has been poured for luminaries at the Oscars, the Venice and Tribeca Film Festivals, and the Prada Costume Institute Gala. This is the first time Ferrari will be presented at the Emmys.

LA PREMIER

FLORAL AND EVENT PROFESSIONALS

Founder and co-owner, Kevin Lee, always knew he was born to design, so at the age of 18, he moved to California from his native South Korea to develop his already-explosive talent. With the opening of LA Premier, his luxury flower production brain-child, Lee saw the realization of his lifelong dream.

LA Premier's first location was on Olympic Boulevard in Beverly Hills, and from the very outset, it was a booming success. Lee's artistic sensibilities led LA Premier to be known in the Los Angeles area for its upscale and luxurious arrangements. After much recommendation, Lee decided to bring his talent for design to the world of event production. During an era when top event planners like Preston Bailey were first becoming icons, LA Premier soon forged itself a reputation for its theatrical vision and transformative design that has made LA Premier a household name in the modern, high-end flower industry. They are the go-to florist for movie premieres, photo shoots, celebrity weddings and awards shows with a clientele roster including names like Oprah Winfrey, Arnold Schwarzenegger and Jennifer Aniston.

Today, Lee is known as something of an event icon, with cameos on reality shows such as The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills and Conan, but he hasn't forgotten his roots in floral design. As one of Los Angeles's leading florists, Kevin fosters young designers by training them in the signature style that has made LA Premier so well-known. With his trusted team, Lee and LA Premier have supplied event arrangements to the Emmy Awards Governors Ball for 11 consecutive years, at one point importing as many as 50,000 roses to create the arrangements. With over 25 years of experience in the high-end flower production industry, LA Premier has the service experience and design sensibilities that set it apart in the Los Angeles flower industry.
