

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*FIRST NIGHT OF 2018 CREATIVE ARTS EMMY® WINNERS ANNOUNCED

(Los Angeles, Calif. – September 8, 2018) The Television Academy tonight presented the first of its two 2018 Creative Arts Emmy® Awards Ceremonies honoring outstanding artistic and technical achievement in television at the Microsoft Theater in Los Angeles. The ceremony, which kicked-off the 70th Emmys, awarded many talented artists and craftspeople in the categories of animation, scripted programming including comedy, drama and limited series.

This year's first Creative Arts Emmy Awards, executive produced by Bob Bain, featured presenters from television's top shows including six-time Emmy winner Bryan Cranston, the cast of Fuller House (Andrea Barber, Candace Cameron Bure, Lori Loughlin, Bob Saget and John Stamos), Molly Shannon (Will & Grace), Justina Machado (One Day At A Time), Ron Cephas Jones (This Is Us), Bill Pullman (The Sinner) and Neil Patrick Harris (A Series of Unfortunate Events).

In recognition of its legacy of boldly propelling science, society and culture where no one has gone before, the visionary science-fiction television franchise Star Trek was recognized with the prestigious 2018 Governors Award, chosen by the Television Academy Board of Governors. Bill Nye the Science Guy presented the Governors Award, which was accepted by the stars of the first and most recent series in the franchise, William Shatner (1966's Star Trek) and Sonequa Martin-Green (2018's Star Trek: Discovery) and an "out of this world" assembly of more than 80 Starfleet crew members and aliens from all Star Trek franchises, including Walter Koenig, Jeri Ryan, Levar Burton, Linda Park, Terry Farrell and Alex Kurtzman.
