For the second year in a row, Kia America will serve as the Official Automotive Partner of the 2021 Emmy Awards season, the Television Academy and Television Academy Foundation, along with the CBS telecast of the 73rd Emmy Awards. Additionally, Franciacorta is partnering with the Academy for the first time to provide sparkling wine to Emmy nominees throughout the season.

Kia America returns as the Official Automotive Partner of the Emmys with the all-new all-electric 2022 EV6 making its primetime debut this year. The EV6 signals the U.S. launch of Kia’s ‘Plan S’ strategy that will deliver 11 all-new electrified models by 2026 globally. Kia America continues to top quality surveys and is recognized as one of the 100 best global brands, offering a complete range of vehicles sold throughout the U.S., including cars and SUVs proudly assembled in America.

Franciacorta is the name of a wine, a method and a region located in the north of Italy, which has mastered the art of creating harmony between ancient knowledge and technology. Throughout the Emmys season, Franciacorta is providing numerous varietals of wines from the region’s finest wineries, produced with second fermentation in the bottle. Thanks to a production method regulated by strict and scrupulous standards, these wines have become synonymous with quality and were the first ones to have obtained the DOCG recognition in 1995. Celebrating its first Emmy partnership, Franciacorta toasts the power of television and the return of its brightest stars.

FIJI Water, the No. 1 premium imported bottled water brand in the United States, is thrilled to return to the red carpet as the Official Water Partner of the 2021 Emmys season. Hydrating Earth’s finest television nominees and entertainers for the eighth consecutive year is an honor.
Ketel One Family Made Vodka will once again raise a glass in celebration of the television industry’s most iconic stars as the Official Spirits Partner of the 73rd Emmy Awards season. For those celebrating in spirit rather than in person, a bespoke Ketel One Vodka Emmys Cocktail Kit will be made available nationwide, complete with everything needed to make the official cocktail from the comfort of home. When raising a glass this Emmys season, Ketel One Family Made Vodka believes that moderation is marvelous.

Sterling Vineyards wines will be exclusively poured throughout the Emmys season, with nominees and guests enjoying the signature Napa Valley Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon at events leading up to the Creative Arts Emmys and the 73rd Emmys telecast, including the Performers Nominee Celebration. As a special gift, winners announced at the Sept. 19 telecast will receive a custom bottle of the winery’s flagship Sterling Vineyards Iridium Cabernet Sauvignon, hand-personalized for each of them backstage during the event. In a year where TV connected us more than ever, Sterling Vineyards raises a glass to inspiring people and the stories they told through television.
